Elon College

Foreword

TO ALL who are, or have been, a part of our school we wish to present this edition of our college yearbook. It is our earnest hope that, in the quiet which must come after battle, you will thumb through these pages and be at peace again as you relive the happy, carefree days you spent at Elon. This book depicts our part of the American way of life . . . may God grant that it always be ours!

THE HAND of war has lain heavily upon our Alma Mater but she has met this crisis as she has met all other crises—with her head held high and with a spirit which is a true challenge to all who love her courage. Elon's sons and daughters have answered the call of duty sounded by their country, and they have responded nobly.

Some of her number will never return and it is in commemoration of them that we dedicate these pages. These gallant ones died that we might live and that freedom might live with us. It is our solemn pledge to keep faith with each one of them and to prove ourselves worthy of their sacrifice.

VIEWS

WILLIAM HENRY BOONE

WILLIAM HENRY BOONE, M.D., is an alumnus of Elon College of the class of 1894. He studied medicine at Davidson College, Charlotte, and at a medical clinic in New York City. Dr. Boone is a prominent physician in the City of Durham, North Carolina. His father, the Rev. Nathaniel Boone, was a Christian minister and spent his entire life in the Southern Convention. Dr. Boone is chairman of the Board of Trustees of Elon College and has served in this capacity for twelve years. He is a loyal churchman and is greatly interested in the program of the College. He has contributed generously to its support.

Recognizing his ability, his fine spirit and worth to our institution, the class of 1945 takes pleasure in dedicating our annual to his honor and the future of our Alma Mater.

DEDICATION

The President

THE INDOMITABLE spirit of American youths to carry on in peace and in war and their determination to prepare themselves for any eventuality is characteristic of our forefathers who cleared our lands, built their homes and made our country great.

In the members of the class of '45 we find that same spirit of aggressiveness and determination. Many of your classmates, at the call of their country, broke ranks and are today out in the thick of the fight. You, too, are on the firing line and are making your contribution to our program for complete freedom and permanent peace.

You have not only been loyal to Alma Mater but you have been coöperative and helpful in campus responsibilities. You have brought much to us. As you go from our midst, we shall miss you. Alma Mater wishes for you the best. May God use and prosper you in those undertakings for which you are best fitted and may He give you satisfaction and peace in all things.

LEON EDGAR SMITH, President.

Deans

IT HAS BEEN INTERESTING. Seniors, to plan, work, and learn together. Your four years at Elon are a good beginning. You have tackled many phenomena—music, painting, poetry; health problems; the woods, stones and stars; radio and other ethereal mysteries. Of these, continue learning; learn some new worth while item every day; they unveil Divine meaning and expand your concept of God. The trained and exalted mind gives world service; it radiates joy; and it finds serene and lasting peace.

May that, Seniors of '15, ever be yours.

Sincerely,

MARY L. PHARES,

Dean of Women and Head of Department of Education and Psychology, Elon College.

FOUR YEARS is not a long time; it took much longer than that for the Colorado River to wear away the soft stone cliffs of the Grand Canyon; it took longer than that to build the pyramids; it took longer than that to perfect the linotype machine. But four years of one's LIFETIME is a period not to be treated lightly. Four years of study, exercise, and fun are now behind you, and you go forth from the campus of Elon College with the stamp of her life upon you. Because of these four years you will ever be known as "Elon Men and Women." The glory of Elon lies in the attitudes, deeds and accomplishments of those who have gone out as her sons and daughters. May you always be proud of this, your college, and may she ever be proud of you!

Sincerely,

DANIEL J. BOWDEN,

Dean of Men and Head of the Department of Philosophy and Religion.

Student Body Officers

IT IS AN ESTABLISHED fact now that the breaking of a tradition can bring good luck as well as bad. The best example of this is our student body president this year. In bygone days this office was always filled by a boy, but this time things were changed. Jeanne Hook has proved herself a most competent leader, and she has firmly established the idea that a girl can measure up to college standards as well as a boy. She has performed her many tasks conscientiously and willingly, and Elon students may well consider themselves fortunate to have had her for their president.

Other student body officers functioning under the president are: JESSIE THURECHT, Vice President; LUCILLE MORGAN, Secretary; GENE POE, Treasurer.

THE STUDENT governing body for boys has its trials and troubles just as any other, but this year these have been of a comparatively minor nature. Much credit is due the senate members for their excellent handling of the problems which have confronted them. Theirs is a responsible position and they have met this responsibility squarely. It is not always easy to be just but these boys have proved their true merit in this respect. Under the guidance of Junius Peedin, the senate has coöperated in a fine manner and they may review the year's activities with satisfaction.

Senate officers include: JOHN ROSSI, Vice President; EMERSON WHATLEY, Secretary and Treasurer.

the Senate

COUNCIL MEETINGS, call-downs, hand books, and inspections may well be called a council member's lot. The girls take these duties in their stride, however, and they seem to be capable of handling each of them efficiently. This year's council record is an enviable one. The president, Mary Warren, has done a splendid job of maintaining order among the girls and she is to be congratulated on her ability. She has been very ably assisted by the other members and the result has been a happy and profitable year.

Officers of the council are: DORIS CHANDLER, Vice President; DOROTHY FOLTZ, Secretary; FRANCES GUNTER, Treasurer.

MARY WARREN
President

the Council

Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges

THE RELEASE of the Who's Who list is always a long awaited event and this time was no exception. There was a grand total of fourteen new members added to the former roll of Elon representatives and this included twelve seniors and two juniors. The honor is not one to be treated lightly for there is much time and forethought spent in choosing the candidates. A committee of faculty members is responsible for the selections and in doing this they must keep in mind several qualities. Leadership, scholarship, character, personality and individual abilities are considered and weighed and the candidates nominated in accordance with the results.

Students chosen as representatives this year are all active in some phase of college life and their records have been deemed such as to deserve this honor. The ones chosen are: IRIS BOLAND, ELIZA BOYD, LULA BROWNE, DORIS CHANDLER, NELL CRENSHAW, EARL FARRELL, JEANNE HOOK, MARY ELLEN McCANTS, JUNIUS PEEDIN, EDNA RUNLEY, WALSTEIN SNYDER, THEO STRUM, JESSIE THURECHT, and MARY WARREN.

IT IS NOT USUALLY thought that noise breeds efficiency, but in the case of the commercial classes at Elon this may be considered true. The clatter of the typewriters would be enough to distract most people but the students of this department seem to be bothered very little. The department is very well equipped and affords ample training space for all students interested in this phase of work. Special emphasis is placed on such subjects as typing, filing, shorthand, office practice, and office machines.

THE STUDENTS released by the commercial teachers here are considered most capable and the quality of their work can bear rigid inspection. Those who complete their work to the proper degree of efficiency may obtain commercial certificates. Usually these secure desirable positions in the business world and they continue to maintain the standards set up for them here at Elon.

Fraternities

IT WAS REGRETTABLE, but necessary, that the four fraternities disband for the duration. Each had been active in doing their part toward making Elon a better school in many ways and we miss their contributions greatly. The fraternities served to bring the men on the campus closer to one another and their attitude of brotherhood permeated the entire student body. They established ideals which have lasted throughout this period of their absence and we look with pride toward their achievements.

We sense their presence here, and we are aware that it is our duty and privilege to keep Elon as they remember it. It is our earnest hope that they will soon be able to return and we are eager for them to re-establish themselves in the place which is rightfully theirs.

MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION

THE MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION comprises those members of the student body, both men and women, who intend to enter the Christian ministry, religious education, social service, or medical missions. Meetings of the group are held weekly, at which time discussion and practice-preaching are utilized to help prepare the prospective minister for his profession.

Officers of the year were Robert Graham, president; Thomas Horner, vice president; and Jack Sunburn, secretary-treasurer.

WE HAVE BEEN BEWILDERED and confused more times than we care to mention during these past months, but it has been worth all that and more. Now that the book is completed we can look back on those days and smile, because it is all over and our job is finished. The only thing worrying us now is how each of you likes the finished product. We are keeping our fingers crossed on that score and perhaps the gods will be on our side. The book is for you and about you—we sincerely hope the representation meets with your approval.

YOUR COLLEGE NEWSPAPER plays a vital part in campus life. Not only for the news, but for its special features, the newspaper training it gives its faithful workers, and its circulation to our service men in all corners of the globe. It acts for some of these men as an only link to college life and serves to keep them ever reminded of the happy days spent here at Elon.

The paper is published every two weeks on the campus by and for Elon students. Each issue is eagerly awaited and the enjoyment derived from the reading proves the worth of such an enterprise.

MARY ELLEN MCCANTS

DR. C. R. MCCLURE

THIS CLUB was organized with the needs of future teachers in mind. Through discussions the members learn more about the educational aspect of life, and they are better prepared to practice certain ideas as a result. A speaker is invited each month to give the members a broader view of major problems and this has proved most helpful. The advisers of the club give their aid to any of the immediate problems which may arise in regard to education in general.

Officers of the club are: MARGARET RAWLS, President; EDITH HALL, Vice President; HILDA MALONE, Secretary; ELIZABETH BRADY, Treasurer; Dean MARY PHARES, Adviser.

Senior S. C. A.

THE STUDENT CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION is composed of students who are especially interested in promoting the religious life on campus. The functions of the Senior Cabinet are to greet freshmen, to help the freshmen organize their Cabinet, to conduct morning watch and vespers, to sponsor socials, and to sponsor special religious speakers on campus.

Officers First Quarter: WALSTEIN SNYDER, President; IRIS C. BOLAND, Vice President; BOB GRAHAM, Secretary.

Officers Second Quarter: IRIS BOLAND, President; ELIZABETH PARKER, Vice President; BOB GRAHAM, Secretary.

Freshman S. C. A.

THIS BRANCH of the Student Christian Association is made up of freshmen only. Those who are particularly interested in religious work are urged to join but all who wish to do so may obtain membership.

The members work with the senior organization in furthering their projects but they also concentrate on certain ideas of their own. They have functioned well this year and they have been a great help in many instances outside their immediate concern.

Leaders of the organization are: RONALD GRINSTEAD, President; KERMIT INMAN, Vice President; ALICE BREWER, Secretary.

IN THE FALL of 1935 several enthusiastic students conceived the idea that a literary society was greatly needed on the Elon campus. From this idea a society with twelve members was formed. From this small group has grown a powerful and beneficial organization.

Truly the group is almost diverse as the Johnson Club of old, for which it is named. It should not be thought that a scholastic austerity inhibits the humor and good fellowship of the group. To the contrary, the debates this year consisting largely of personal abuse and ludicrous statements have been more provoking than stimulating. Viewed from every standpoint, the Johnson Literary Society has enjoyed a very pleasant year.

Three presidents have served the society this year: DON MILLER, GENE POE, and FRED REGISTER.

PANVIO LITERARY SOCIETY

Second row: Crutchfield, Neese, Strader, Webster, Barrett.

THE PANVIO LITERARY SOCIETY, companion organization to the Dr. Johnson Literary Society, operates on much the same plan as their brother organization. Regular meetings featuring programs of varying nature, business sessions and socials are included in their activities.

Speakers for the programs consist of members of the faculty and off-campus visitors. Occasionally there is a joint meeting of Dr. Johnson's and Panvio which is sometimes in the form of a debate on campus conditions and current affairs.

One of the main events of this year was the annual banquet held in the Blue Room of Hotel Alamance in Burlington.

The officers of this organization are: EDNA REITZEL, President; DELL BURKHEAD, Vice President; RUTH WEBSTER, Secretary and IRIS WESTBROOK, Treasurer.

ELON CHOIR

THE CHOIR affords one of our most lasting sources of enjoyment here on campus. The members are always ready to fill in whenever they are needed and they deserve much credit for being present so often. Our church and chapel services would be much less impressive if it were not for the beautiful selections rendered by these students. We owe them a debt of gratitude for their faithfulness and for the quality of their musical performances.

Special concerts are a part of the choir's duties and, under the direction of Professor Irving Bartley and Miss Margaret Whittington, these have proved most successful. "The Messiah," the traditional Christmas rendition, is still the most popular of all selections and this is looked forward to all the year by students, faculty, and community members alike.

THE ADDITION of several new members, plus the improved quality of performance, constitutes proof as to the advancement of this year's band. Mr. E. F. Rhodes of Burlington, N. C., is the director and under his guidance the members have responded most favorably. They have furnished music at our basketball games and this added a great deal to the spirits of the spectators. It is hoped that the band will be able to attain even more recognition in the future and we feel confident that this can be accomplished.

Members of the band include:

Theo Strum
Marguerite Hudson
George Jenkins
Archie Braxton
Lucille Morgan
Sarah Brewer
Jane Lewis
Patsy Wrenn
Ermine Davis

MISS LIDA MUSE

THIS CLUB is one of the most worthwhile organizations on the campus. Its membership is composed of Home Economics majors and others who are interested in this field of work.

Meetings are held monthly, at which time subjects related to Home Economics are discussed. In addition to the regular meetings, the members aid the Red Cross and take part in other worthwhile activities on the campus.

Miss Lida Muse is sponsor of the club and the officers are: BETTY BOB STONE, President; KATHLEEN SHOFFNER, Vice President; MARY WARREN, Secretary and Treasurer.

DAY STUDENTS ORGANIZATION

THIS ORGANIZATION is one of the most active and influential on the campus. The members are always willing to take part in college events and their services are welcomed. Nell Crenshaw has done much toward making the organization even more well known than it has been in the past and much can be said for the progress which has been made. It is a practice for the organization to sponsor a party sometime during the year and this is a greatly anticipated event. The day students comprise an essential portion of our life here at Elon and their importance is decidedly recognized.

Officers of the organization are: NELL CRENSHAW, President; IRIS BOLAND, Vice President; PATRICIA HOOK, Secretary; L. W. RILEY, Treasurer.

THE TRADITIONAL May Day was observed here on May 5. The court, composed of the May Queen and King, the Maid of Honor and her escort, and eight attendants, were entertained by a program of music and dancing.

Under the direction of Mr. John Westmoreland and Miss Anne McClenny, a program of ballet was presented. The music, taken from Bach, Schubert, Chopin, Shostakovitch, and Delius was chosen to show the development of music from that of a Baroque nature to contemporary compositions.

NEW EMPHASIS has been placed on physical training everywhere and the program here at Elon has been accelerated in accordance with this. This year we were fortunate enough to have intercollegiate basketball and this affords a vast source of pleasure for all who love sports. The team was a hard fighting one and the boys deserved a great deal of credit for turning in such good performances in the face of great odds in many instances.

The intramural program has also been intensified and as a result many more students have been participating in the various sports. By such friendly compe-

BUILDERS DREAMS

VISIONS created by the imagination precede the achievement of any really great accomplishment. The ability to weave the threads of imagination into the finished fabric is equally important.

It has been the privilege of the EDWARDS & BROUGHTON COMPANY to cooperate with the PhiPsiCli staff in creating their vision into material form.

Such cooperation is one of the "visions" which precede the building of a successful business, and is a part of the working policy of the EDWARDS & BROUGHTON COMPANY.

To those Staffs desiring complete co-operation, we offer unexcelled service.

You, too, may be proud of your annual.

Correspondence is Invited
